

CentralAmericaStation.com

Test Your Grammar Skills

Personal and Possessive Pronouns (gap-fill)

1. Personal subject pronouns:

- the subject of a sentence
- go before the main verb
- e.g. "she" in: "She had a cup of tea at eight o'clock this morning."

2. Personal object pronouns:

- the object of a sentence (what the subject is talking about)
- go after the main verb
- e.g. "him" in: "I saw him for a few minutes before he left."

3. Possessive adjectives:

- describe possession
- go before a noun
- e.g. "my" in: "Can you pass my bag please?"

4. Possessive pronouns:

- describe possession
- replace a noun
- e.g. "hers" in: "Whose book is that?" "It's hers."

_____	me	_____	mine
you	_____	your	_____
_____	him	_____	his she	_____	her	_____
_____	it	_____	its
they	_____	their	_____
_____	us	_____	ours

What type of pronoun? 1, 2, 3 or 4?

"I said to her – it's not your husband who's the problem, it's mine!"

CentralAmericaStation.com

Test Your Grammar Skills

Personal and Possessive Pronouns (gap-fill)

Answers:

I	me	my	mine
you	you	your	yours
he	him	his	his
she	her	her	hers
it	it	its	its
they	them	their	theirs
we	us	our	ours

1 2 1 3

"I said to her – it's not your husband who's the problem, it's mine!"

1 4

The diagram shows a speech bubble with the text: "I said to her – it's not your husband who's the problem, it's mine!". Four boxes with numbers are connected to the underlined words by arrows: box '1' points to 'her', box '2' points to 'it's', box '1' points to 'your', and box '3' points to 'mine!'. Below the bubble, two more boxes with numbers '1' and '4' have arrows pointing to the underlined words 'it's' and 'mine!' respectively.